FEDERAL AND INSTITUTIONAL REQUIREMENTS

Due to the specific nature of the Federal Work Study program, there are many federal and institutional requirements that must be followed. If these guidelines are not followed, the Department could choose to terminate work study program.

In order to hire a work study student, the University and/or the Department must comply with the following requirements:

- 1. A supervisor must comply with the University's policy on Equal Employment and Harassment Opportunity Policy in all aspects of employment, including application, hiring, compensation, training, discharge and benefits.
- 2. The Supervisor must have a vacancy and job description posted with Student Employ Huentan Resource sefore he/she can employ worstudy students.

 Job posting instructions can be found atww.una.edu/career
- 3. Students cannot be required to work during scheduled class hexems and interim periods
- 4. Students cannowork more than 8 hours a day 29 hoursper week

WHAT DETERMINES WORK STUDY ELIGIBILITY

Students must demonstra financial need to be eligible to participate in the FWS Program. This process involves completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Funding for the Federal Woßtudy Program at The University of North Alabama is limited; therefore cannot emphasize enoughe importance of completing this application early.

Priority consideration is given to undergraduate students exhibiting the greatest need who apply before June of each year.

Students who have been awarded FWS will receive an award notification indicating the maximum amount of gross pay to be earned per term. Because of limited funding for FWS, not all eligible students will be offered this assistance. However, UNA funds other jobs each year through University Work Swhitshiall students are eligible to apply.
