IV. FAR Report

Dr. Roden stated that coaches must pass the Coaches Certification before they can recruit off campus. Coaches certifications expire each year on July 31st. Coaches must take the test each year.

Dr. Roden discussed with the Athletics Committee how to create more student involvement with faculty and staff. The focus is to build relationships between academics and athletics. Suggestions were as follows:

Faculty appreciation night at sporting events.

Faculty coach of the week

Pat also stated that the Athletic Committee should attend athletics events as a committee.

V. Athletic Director Report

Mr. Mark Linder updated the committee on the following:

The UNACConnect1 program will be launched on Tuesday, September 13, 2016. This program is designed to encourage face to face interaction. The focus is to build interpersonal relationships. With the demolition at Braly stadium, parking at the stadium was discussed. A video, parking map and a 10 page operating procedure has been created to help alleviate confusion when parking at the stadium.

The ISSG was been submitted in June 2016. The guide is due every 5 years.

The GPA for the spring was 3.07; the highest GPA for the athletics department.

Christa Raney and Andrea Hunt are teaching two sections of the FYE class. The FYE course is designed to help educate first-year students about various support services on campus.

A conference invitation for Division I has not been received.
